

Cropwell Bishop Primary School: Our EYFS Aims and Principles

Aims	Principles	Key actions to achieve these
To introduce our school core values of Pride, Kindness, Perseverance and Respect. To develop a child's independence and sense of self, through a nurturing and valuing environment. To develop a sense of team, modelled by the staff and valuing each pupil's role in our setting. To develop an awareness and understanding of 'others', appreciating the needs and beliefs of individuals. To spark a 'love of learning' and fuel the children with knowledge and skills which will be built upon and flourish throughout their educational journey. To ensure all pupils leave with a base of core knowledge and skills surrounding communication, language, literacy and mathematics.	Learning is exciting and is to be enjoyed by all. All children should be inspired and supported to make educational risks, safe in the knowledge that they will always be valued. Parent's and carer's contributions and voice are integral to the welfare and development of each pupil. Children will have the opportunity to engage in a balance of child lead and adult lead activities and experiences through a range of high-quality provision. Our high-quality interactions with the children are always valued as opportunities to push thinking, promote interpersonal skills and develop communication and language.	Our staff team embody early learning role models who share the children's enthusiasm whilst using their extensive expertise to scaffold and learning and promote our core values. Through a carefully constructed and progressive curriculum the children will develop skills and acquire knowledge to achieve the goals across all areas of learning. Our curriculum is tailored to the knowledge and skills our children have in relation to our demographic and setting. We also strive to provide learning opportunities to help develop the children into well rounded, knowledgeable and valuing learners and members of the wider community. Provision is of high quality and supports learning development opportunities in both indoor and outdoor settings. Communication through our Tapestry App values both school and home learning. In addition to providing high quality support material to parents to further support home learning.