

Playing and Exploring

Being willing to have a go

Finding out and exploring

Using what they know in their play

Building blocks that children will be learning to do	ENABLING ENVIRONMENTS Provision and environment to promote and develop the building blocks	Role and actions of the adult
To Achieve Personal Greatness...
Kindness <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Explore their environment and be curious to find out more. Perseverance <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Plan and think ahead about how they will explore or play with objects. • Show curiosity about objects, events and people. • Use my senses to explore the world. • Guide their own thinking and actions by talking to themselves while playing. Pride <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Make independent choices. Do things independently that they have been previously taught. 	Stimulating resources are freely available to children and they can access them when they wish Resources are allowed to be used in different and creative ways by children when appropriate Resources are organised clearly and are accessible to the children and promote independent learning When appropriate guidance on how to engage with a resource or activity is available to pupils and often modelled Make sure resources are relevant to pupil's interests and needs Indoor and outdoor space is as flexible as possible and pupils can adapt it and take things from one area to another if needed/appropriate Opportunities for role play are available and promoted with high quality resources and guidance A calm and orderly space is provided to support pupils in concentrating in the little room	Play alongside children and show own interest in learning and identifying new things whilst respecting that of others Help children to do what they are trying to do without taking over. explain aloud thinking that identifies how to overcome problems, show perseverance and models language Join in with play that children are undertaking, fitting in with their ideas and actively encouraging those who need it Model pretending that objects are something else and how to develop stories and activities Encourage children to try something new Help children identify risks and dangers and be respectful of the resources in their environment Offer reassurance and reward when children lack confidence to try new things. Then promote a sense of pride once they have 'given something a go'

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Bring their own interests and fascinations into early years settings. This helps them to develop their learning. Respect <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Reach for and accept objects. Make choices and explore different resources and materials. • Respond to new experiences that you bring to their attention. 	First hand experiences are planned for and are frequent element of children’s experiences and activities Small world resources and activities are varied and made attractive to all pupils Exploration areas and the curiosity cube are created and these are used by adults to develop children’s ability to explore and investigate Familiar game type activities and puzzles are a key feature/element of games table for core offer provision	Pay attention to how individual children are engaging in activities (the challenges they face, their effort, thoughts, approach and enjoyment) Talk about and show examples of how we get better at things by practising them lots and learning from mistakes and when things go wrong still show perseverance
---	---	--