

Some of the countries in the continent of North America include USA, Canada and Mexico. North America lies in the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans.

USA has many landscapes, natural landmarks and national parks.

Climate and land use mean more people live in the states in the East of USA.

Food from the US is eaten all over the world. USA is the world's main producer of corn which is used to manufacture goods other than food. Soya beans, wheat and cotton are also grown.

California is a state on the Pacific (west) coast of the USA. It has a hot, dry climate and many different physical features. It has the highest state population in USA.

California is a state in the country of the USA

Nottinghamshire is a county in England, United Kingdom. The UK is in Europe.

climate	Weather conditions in general or over a long period
export/import	Sending goods to/getting goods from another country.
industry	A group of businesses making a particular type of product
landmark	Key physical feature of a place which can be natural or man-made
land use	What the land is used for. This varies from area to area.
manufacture	Make or produce goods
region	An area of land with common features, natural or manmade
state	A large area in the USA. There are 50 states in total
tectonic (plates)	Relating to Earth's surface or crust
trade	Buying, selling or exchanging goods or services

Country		Capital	Language	North America covers approximately the same amount of land as Europe.  The USA is approximately 40 times bigger than the UK.
United States of America USA		Washington DC	English
Canada		Ottawa	English French
Mexico		Mexico City	Spanish

Statue of Liberty

Niagara Falls

Great Lakes

Chichen-itza

Empire State Building

Grand Canyon

Rockies

Caribbean coasts

There are many landscapes and climates in North America. The further north, the colder it becomes. Canada is colder, while Mexico is warmer because it is near the equator.

City of Nottingham

Sherwood Forest

River Trent

Peak District (Derbyshire)

Human geography

There are many towns and villages in the county of Nottinghamshire with many rural and farming areas. Less than 1 million people live here. It is famous for lace making, bicycle industry and Robin Hood, the Castle and Sherwood Forest.

Physical geography

The climate is mild. The Peak District National Park is nearby. The River Trent is the third longest river in the UK.

Los Angeles

Sierra Nevada Mountains

Golden Gate Bridge San Francisco

Mojave Desert

Human geography

The most famous cities are Los Angeles and San Francisco. There are lots of landmarks including the Golden Gate Bridge, so California has many tourists. Other industry include farming, technology and entertainment. 40 million people live in California.

Physical geography

The climate varies across the state. California lies on the edge of a tectonic plate and earthquakes can occur.

Some of the countries in the continent of North America include .....

North America lies in the ..... and ..... Oceans.

USA has many landscapes, natural landmarks and national parks.

Climate and land use mean more people live in .....

Food from the US is eaten all over the world. USA is the world's main producer of..... which is used to manufacture goods other than food. ....are also grown.

California is a state on the..... coast of the USA. It has a .....climate and many different physical features. It has the highest ..... in USA.

Nottinghamshire is a ..... in England, United Kingdom. The UK is in Europe.

	Weather conditions in general or over a long period
export/import
industry
	Key physical feature of a place which can be natural or man-made
land use
manufacture
region
state
tectonic (plates)
	Buying, selling or exchanging goods or services

Country		Capital	Language
United States of America USA			English
Canada
Mexico			Spanish

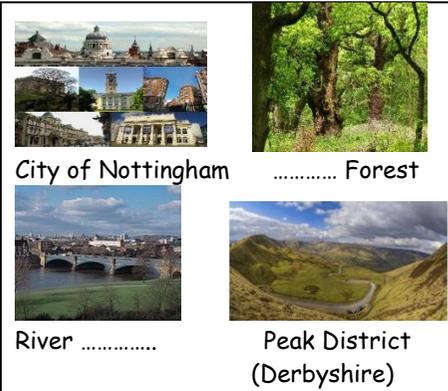

North America covers approximately the same amount of land as .....

The USA is approximately .....times bigger than the UK.

Statue of Liberty ..... Falls ..... Lakes Chichen-itza
 Empire State Building ..... Canyon Rockies Caribbean coasts

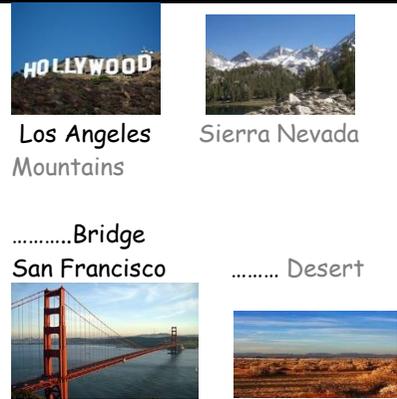

There are many landscapes and climates in North America. The further north, the ..... it becomes. Canada is colder, while Mexico is warmer because.....

City of Nottingham ..... Forest
 River ..... Peak District (Derbyshire)

Human geography
 There are many towns and villages in the county of Nottinghamshire with many ..... areas. Less than... million people live here. It is famous for.....and Robin Hood, the Castle and Sherwood Forest.

Physical geography
 The climate is mild. The Peak District National Park is nearby. The River ..... is the ..... longest river in the UK .

Los Angeles Sierra Nevada
 .....Bridge San Francisco ..... Desert

Human geography
 The most famous cities are ..... There are lots of ..... including the Golden Gate Bridge so California has many tourists. Other industry include ..... and entertainment. ....million people live in California.

Physical geography
 The climate varies across the state. California lies on the edge of a tectonic plate and ..... can occur.

