In the table, there are a selection of activities to choose from that range in complexity and time allocation. The stars link to the time spent on each activity. For example, a four- star activity will need more time than a two star one. Challenge yourself to see how many stars you could get in a week!

Look again at imperatives (bossy verbs) which are also used in persuasive writing. Pick a place or visitor attraction you know well (either home or away) and create a tourist information leaflet. See the example attached to help you. As well as imperatives, use statements, exclamations, rhetorical questions & powerful vocabulary! 	As part of your regular reading time, pick a children’s classic to read or listen to. Try the fantasy adventures of Peter Pan or Alice in Wonderland or for animal lovers there’s Black Beauty or the Wind in the Willows. https://www.researchify.co.uk/audiobooks.html 	As we start to go out and about more again and more vehicles are on the move, it’s important that we stay safe when crossing the road. The activity sheet attached reminds you of what you need to do. 	Quel temps fait-il? Learn French weather language and then practise by using some origami skills and making a weather fortune teller!
We were working on fractions as school closed and revisited them in work on decimals. This week’s Maths revises addition and subtraction of fractions, as well as covering fraction-based problems and fractions of amounts. Follow and complete the guided lessons https://whiterosemaths.com/homelearning/year-4/ and for more practice visit https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/tags/z63tt39/year-4-and-p5-lessons/1 	Complete the reading comprehension about Captain Tom Moore (attached), remembering to get your answers from the text unless it specifically asks for your own words or ideas. Then have a go at some of the related activities (attached). Creating your own family’s coat of arms sounds particularly interesting! 	Remember to have a go at the branching database activity set as a 2Do on Purple Mash. Remind yourselves about how different species belong in different groups (classification) which may help you think of questions. https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/topics/zn22pv4/articles/z3nbcwx The activity sheet attached identifies some of the key features of each group. Do you know which animals are exceptions? 	Linked to the reading comprehension and thinking back to our work on perimeter, work out the perimeter of your garden or a space at home then see how many laps you can do walking, jogging, skipping or sidestepping. It might not be as far as Captain Moore but work out the total distance travelled over a period of time (remember 1km =1000m).
Learn your spellings (attached). The suffix-ous turns a noun into an adjective meaning “full of” eg danger > dangerous. Note the spelling rules at the top of the sheet. Use a dictionary to find precise definitions and copy these in your neatest handwriting into your journals. 	Music has the power to lift our spirits and even take us to different places. Make your own playlists to reflect or change your mood (attached). Let nature help create music around your home and garden by making a windchime (attached). 	During June, have a go at completing the Kindness Calendar. One small act every day can make a BIG difference to your family- and you! https://www.redcross.org.uk/get-involved/teaching-resources/kindness-calendar 	Keep practising touch typing https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/topics/zf2f9j6/articles/z3c6tfr or Purple Mash, Computing then 2Type. Ask a grown up to check you’re doing it correctly!
