In the table, there are a selection of activities to choose from that range in complexity and time allocation. The stars link to the time spent on each activity. For example, a four- star activity will need more time than a two star one. Challenge yourself to see how many stars you could get in a week!

Correct use of apostrophe is important but can be tricky. Remember we use apostrophe in contractions to replace missing letters or to show possession (belonging), both singular and plural. The Y4 objective is to master plural possession so have a look at the powerpoint, try the activity and then test your apostrophe knowledge with the quiz (all attached).	Read some non-fiction. Use this to help you with your animal research or to learn about a subject of interest to you. Notice the layout features and use them to help you find the information you need eg index, glossary, headings. Choose a species you're particularly interested in & create a fact file. Include words and pictures about its habitat, its features and how it has adapted to its habitat. Use the template attached or present the information as a poster, booklet, powerpoint – it's up to you!	Design a National book token! Follow the link for more information and to enter the competition. Closing date is the 28th of June. Have fun! https://www.nationalbooktokens.com/create-a-national-book-token-for-your-class
Become an expert in Roman numerals! Follow the powerpoint (attached), completing the practice questions, then have a go at the journal activities and the challenges (attached).	Practise and learn your spellings (attached) looking at words which start with gu- to make the hard /g/ sound eg guitar. Extra challenge: put these words in alphabetical order! You will need to look at the third letter and beyond to order them correctly! Remember to find out the meaning of any words you're unsure about.	Design your own prayer mat. See attached for examples or look at patterns in nature for inspiration! Remember not to include people or animals as Muslims don't ever draw these in case they are worshipped. Use a sheet of A4 card or paper. You could even punch holes in and use wool to make tassels for an authentic look.	Play the Favourites Game with someone in your family and find out something you didn't know about what they like! https://www.elsa-support.co.uk/wp-content/uploads/2020/05/Favourites-game.pdf
